Taking Your Mentoring Program to the Next Level

Dr. Lois J. Zachary
Facilitator

©Leadership Development Services, LLC

Our Focus Today

- ▶ Broadening and deepening your understanding about mentoring, mentoring relationships and your mentoring program
- ▶ Giving you the tools and understanding you will need to identify and evaluate where your mentoring program is, where it needs to go, and how to get there

Our Agenda

- ▶ Presentation: Taking Your Mentoring Program to the Next Level
- ▶ Mentoring in Action: Panel Presentation
- ▶ Break
- ▶ Table Conversation/Debrief
- ▶ Toolkit in Action: Panel Presentation
- ▶ Table Conversation/Debrief
- ▶ Closure Activity/Session Evaluation

At Your Table

- ▶ Introduce yourself....
- ▶ What is the most challenging aspect/issue you are facing in developing and implementing your mentoring program right now?

What Mentoring Is (and What It Isn't)

Mentoring is....

a reciprocal learning relationship in which mentor and mentee agree to a partnership where they work collaboratively toward achievement of mutually defined goals that will develop a mentee's skills, abilities, knowledge and/or thinking.

Understanding the Differences

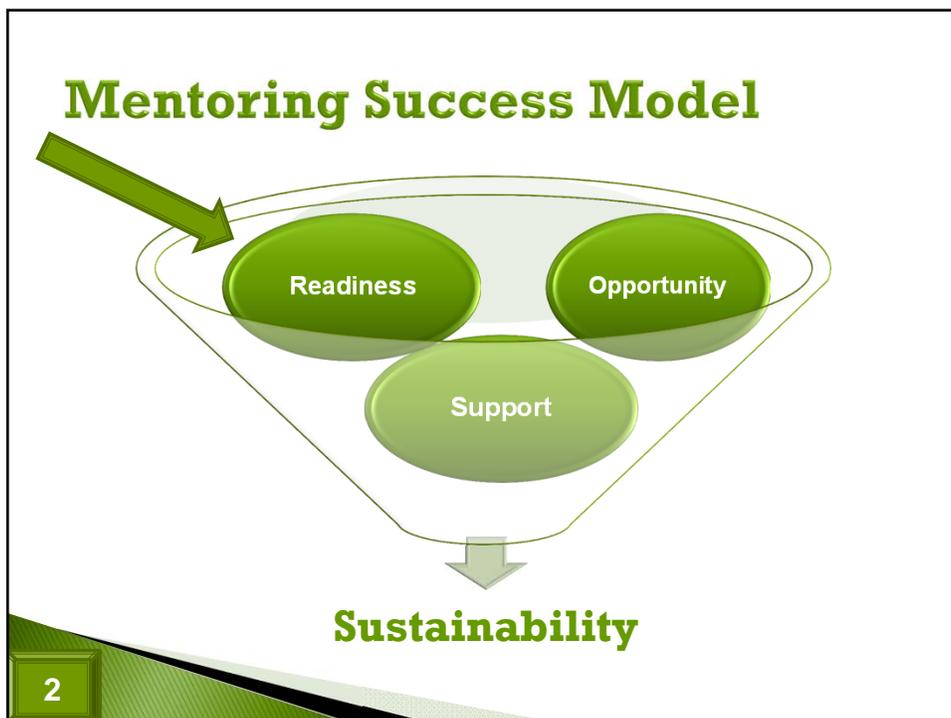

Mentoring	Includes but is Not Coaching	Is Not Counseling
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Future • Voluntary • Organic • Focus on development • Intangibles • Soft skills • Range of learning opportunities • Multiple forms • Self-directed 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Present • Contractual • Emerging field of practice • Focus on boosting performance • Tangibles • 1:1 • Processes and procedures • Short-term • Coach-driven process 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Past • Uses intervention techniques • Focus on career issues and providing emotional support • Usually 1:1 • Confidentiality a priority

Shifting the Paradigm

Mentee Role	From passive receiver to active learner
Mentor Role	From authority to facilitator
Learning Process	From mentor-directed to self-directed ; from face-to-face to multiple and varied opportunities
Focus	From knowledge transfer and acquisition to critical reflection and application

Mentoring: A Reflective Practice

- ▶ The first task is to get people to talk about their experiences.
- ▶ The second task is to analyze those experiences individually and collectively.
- ▶ The third task to identify and act on the implications of what is revealed.

Lessons Learned

Readiness

- ▶ Think about any of the programs or initiatives that your department/college has rolled out and implemented in the past.
 - What lessons have you learned?
 - What worked?
 - What got in the way?

Is Everyone On The Same Page?

Readiness

Define the Goals

Readiness

Identify Success Factors

Readiness

- ▶ What would mentoring success look like in your college?

Articulate Roles and Responsibilities

Readiness

- ▶ Mentor's role
- ▶ Mentor's responsibilities
- ▶ Mentee's role
- ▶ Mentee's responsibilities
- ▶ Manager/supervisor role
- ▶ Other "silent" partners

Establish Criteria

Readiness

- ▶ What are the ideal personal characteristics and attributes of a mentor?
- ▶ Who should serve as mentors?
- ▶ Who should not?
- ▶ How will mentors be selected?
- ▶ Will everyone who wants to be a mentor be selected?
- ▶ What do you tell people who are not selected?

Develop Pairing Protocols

Readiness

Step One	Define Criteria for making the matches
Step Two	Determine who will make the matches
Step Three	Discuss what happens once the match is made
Step Four	Decide what happens if the match doesn't work out
Step Five	Detail action steps in sequence from selection to final pairing.

Develop a Marketing & Communication Strategy

Readiness

- ▶ Stakeholders
- ▶ Objectives
- ▶ Key Messages
- ▶ Vehicles
- ▶ When/How Often
- ▶ Accountability

Communicate, communicate, communicate!

Readiness

A network of green human figures is shown, connected by dashed lines, representing communication. Below the network is a process flow with six steps: Awareness, Understanding, Acceptance, Commitment, Actions, and Integration.

Awareness → Understanding → Acceptance → Commitment → Actions → Integration

At the very minimum

Readiness

- ▶ This is what is happening
- ▶ This is where we are going
- ▶ This is what it means to you
- ▶ This is how we will make it work

A 3D white figure is shown holding a megaphone, symbolizing communication or announcement.

Ensure Visible Support

Readiness

- ▶ What would support of top leaders and directors look like (roll-out and implementation)?
- ▶ Who must be involved?
- ▶ How would they be involved?
- ▶ What would they be doing?
- ▶ Current champions
- ▶ Potential champions

Creating Demand . . .

- ▶ Has a multiplier affect
- ▶ Motivates participation
- ▶ Spurs conversation and dialogue about mentoring
- ▶ Builds credibility
- ▶ Produces momentum
- ▶ Inspires application of new insights and learning

Multiple Mentoring Opportunities

15 Minute Break

Table Conversation

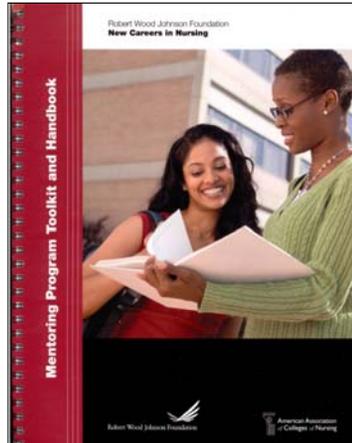

- ▶ What resonates the most for you from what you've heard from our panelists?
- ▶ What successes have you had at your institution in regard to each of the components?
- ▶ Which of these components is your biggest challenge and why?

14

Debrief

Using the Toolkit

- ▶ How are your table colleagues using the toolkit?
- ▶ What ideas, inspirations, strategies might you want to consider going forward?

15

Modified Adobe Peer Mentoring Protocol

- ▶ Reflect on your mentoring program challenge(s).
- ▶ Identify three specific action steps will you to take your mentoring program to the next level.
- ▶ Person A presents their challenge
- ▶ Group members ask questions for clarity only.
- ▶ Peers make suggestions, in turn (no discussion).
- ▶ Take turns rotating around table until each person has had an opportunity to present and gather suggestions from table colleagues.

16

What is your commitment?

- ▶ To take yourself to the next level?
- ▶ To move your program to the next level?

17

A compelling reason

I choose to risk my significance,
To live so that which came to me as seed
Goes to the next as blossom
And that which came to me
as blossom,
Goes on as fruit.
